A vibrant, light-bodied Portuguese red wine produced in the Lisboa region. The term Palhete refers to a traditional style of wine made by co-fermenting red and white grapes together. This produces a juicy, refreshing, and highly chillable wine.

Tasting Notes:

Aromatic and bright, this palhete-style red reveals enticing notes of strawberry and raspberry on the nose. The palate is lively and elegant, showcasing juicy red fruit, soft tannins, and a refreshing acidity. Light in body yet full of character, it's a versatile, gastronomic wine that shines when served slightly chilled.
