Chablis Vieilles Vignes, 'Côte de Brechain' Domaine Testut

Price	£25.99
Code	CHAB148

Produced from vines nestled in a cleft between the Grand Cru of Blanchot and the 1er Cru of Montée de Tonnerre where the deep and highly mineral soils are packed with chalk and Kimmeridge and the vines are nearing 50 years old, this is without doubt one of the finest Chablis produced.

Tasting Notes:

A very floral aromatic profile of white flowers and delicate vegetal notes. The palate is precise and elegant, with flinty minerality, vibrant freshness, and taut tension. Whilst not a rich vintage, it offers beautiful traditional complexity, classic steely character, and a refined, persistent finish.
