Produced from two parcels of vines, planted on soil covered with large limestone rocks, that lie directly to the south of the winery, bordered by neat stone walls and gently sloping from the upper wooded reaches, down to the edge of the village. One parcel is now 85 years old, the other was replanted in 1985.

Tasting Notes:

The nose is immense – powerful, concentrated and very fine. Tropical fruit, honey, tinned pineapple and crème anglaise lift from the glass. The palate is equally rich and powerful, with an intense concentration of tropical fruits, integrated oak (again, 1/3rd). The brooding sense of power returns again. Such is the concentration and complexity that this wine seems to offer, the palate goes on and on, building elements of toasted nuts, honey, caramel fudge, vanilla crème and intense minerality. All balanced and supported by the sharpest of fresh citrus acidity.
