This renowned property is always extremely popular with our En Primeur buyers as it provides terrific drinking at a relatively sensible price. A super claret!

Tasting Notes:

A big, impressive, intense bouquet of stewed black fruits. The palate is sturdy and chunky with pronounced characters of ripe blackcurrant and damson, finely integrated sawn timber. A subtle streak of boiled jam hints at the warmth of the vintage, tempered by notes of mulberry and pomegranate that add elements of freshness to give a super balance. Big and powerful - a keeper.
