What a resounding success, some even arguing that it could attain legendary status. A higher degree of Cabernet Sauvignon than usual has made for a more masculine style of Palmer this vintage. Concentration, depth and power are the defining characteristics of this great wine. Expensive? Yes but it is nevertheless one of the most sought after wines of this vintage

Tasting Notes:

"I am breathless with the dark-berry, lavender and burnt-orange aromas. Some salt. Just so formidable and deep. Stunningly sexy on the palate with a density and power, yet it leaves things so clean and bright. You want to drink it and enjoy it now, but it has the structure to last forever. | Press Comments | 98 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate Bottled relatively late in mid-September 2017, the 2015 Palmer is a blend of 44% Merlot and 50% Cabernet Sauvignon with a small portion of Petit Verdot. Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, it offers vibrant red currants, black cherries, wild blueberries, earth and mineral characteristics to begin, with slowly unfurling floral notes of violets and dried roses plus compelling baker's chocolate and fragrant earth layers.
