A delightfully elegant wine, with great depth of flavour due to spontaneous fermentation. The minerality is full to bursting - very moreish!

Tasting Notes:

Light gold in colour with green tinge. Mineral aroma with thyme. On tasting the wine bursts with fresh herbs, thyme and rosemary balanced with a hit of vanilla. There is a lovely undertone of dry tobacco leaves that adds complexity of flavour.

Ivan Doppler acquired their estate in 1938, who himself came from a winegrowing family. His acquisition represented a life-long dream as well as a means of livelihood. After 89 successful harvests he passed his knowledge and passion onto his daughter Veronika Krsnik, who took over in 2002. Now her daughter Mihaela is in charge of operations. Read more online
