Producer Overview	In 2006, Andrea Spinola left behind a successful corporate career in Milan to return to his roots in Rovereto di Gavi - a village that had always held a special place in his heart. His family had cultivated the vineyards there for centuries, forming what is now the Marchese Luca Spinola estate. When his young family joined him in 2015, Andrea set out to craft wines that honour the region's rich traditions while allowing the Cortese grape to fully express the unique character of his estate's terroir. The result is a refreshing and irresistibly charming interpretation of Gavi
