The vineyard contains ancient vines, up to 90 years old on 1 parcel. Maranges has become more popular in recent years and this wine helps to explain why.

Tasting Notes:

It is rich, ripe and jammy on the palate, soothing and fruit filled. The tannins are chalky and the raspberry freshness is exquisite. A perfectly balanced wine. Sumptuous.

Producer Overview	In 2005 Marc and Alex Bachelet formed Domaine Bachelet-Monnot with the help of their Uncle Monnot and father. Given the combination of exceptional vineyards, an excellent vintage, and the brothers' attention to details in the vines and in the cellar, the first release of the Domaine's Puligny wines received immediate recognition both locally as well as internationally. The seat of the domaine is situated in Dezize-lès-Maranges, just southwest of Santenay. No herbicides are used in the vineyards and regular ploughing of the rows is carried out to manage weeds.
