Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Noi Cento, Roxan

---

Price	£11.99
Code	MONT360

A great Montepulciano from a really good producer who understands perfectly what fans of Montepulciano want - soft cherry and red fruits, an easy going character yet with good structure and body. Nicely weighted and showing sheer drinkability in abundance.

---

Tasting Notes:

Characteristic notes of mature red cherries on the palate and nose, lifted by a hint of oak, coffee notes and a touch of chestnut - the tannins are soft and mature. A fresh and enjoyable red.

Specification

Vinification	This wine comes from a series of vineyards that look toward the Pescara river, and is a blend of several vineyards and growers who work for the Roxan cooperative. The ripe Montepulciano grapes are hand harvested in small 25 kg baskets, sorted and sent to the winery, where they are received, destemmed and then crushed, with the pulp and skins then fermented in tank at a warm 22 degrees, with regular pumping over of the skins to extract good colour and natural tannins, whilst avoiding any drop of acidity. A small proportion of the red wine is fermented in large Botte ( 2000 litre Slavonian oak casks )

Press Comments	Decanter, Highly Recommended – 91 points, April 2024: “Perfumed and quite delicate on the nose. Red and black cherry fruit with a lightly creamy note. Balanced with well-judged fruit expression. Refined tannins, a bit of gripe and toast, clove and cola. Classic with an elegant finish. Anyone would like a glass of this!”
